There are numerous allusions: the gem from the Medici treasure, the pearls in her hair (the "wasp's nest"), which refer to the Vespucci heraldic animal ("vespa"=wasp) and much more. This painting portrays Simonetta Vespucci, who died young and was considered the "queen of beauty" of her time. Every now and then, at a feast, she became the platonic mistress of Giuliano de Medici. Original: ca. 1480, mixed media on poplar wood, 81.8 x 54 cm, Städel Museum in Frankfurt.

Brilliant reproduction in Fine Art Giclée print on artist's canvas, mounted on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 499 copies, numbered on the back and with certificate. Framed in a handmade real wood frame. Size 41 x 59 cm. Exclusively at ars mundi.
