

Relief Rider

€280.00

Product no.: IN-032110

Horse and rider were a particularly popular motif in classical Greece. The detailed depiction with the unmistakable individuality of the profile is already clearly Hellenistic. Found in Rhodes, 100 c. BC, marble. The original hangs today in the MMA, New York. Polymer ars mundi museum replica cast by hand. Size approx. 33 x 47 cm. With suspension device. Weight 7 kg.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/relief-rider-032110/>