They originate from Uruguay and are among the most beautiful examples of folk art there. The effort that goes into these colourful ceramics is enormous. In a first step, the still soft cast base form is decorated with fine ornamental details. The first firing hardens it, then it is painted - again by hand - and decorative enamel glazes are applied. After further kiln cycles, gilding and platinum elements are finally applied - creating individual testimonies of the close connection between Latin American folk art and handicraft at the highest level. Each piece is unique.

The three wise monkeys have their origin in a Japanese proverb and stand for the ideal way of dealing with bad things. The original text "See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil" is part of the teaching of the Buddhist god Vajra. Size approx. 9 x 8 x 7 cm (h/w/d) each. Only available as a set.
