

Andy Warhol: Picture "Marilyn Monroe (Marilyn)" (1967), framed

€590.00

Product no.: IN-945340.R1

Andy Warhol was America's most famous artist. He was considered a revolutionary, an eccentric and the inventor of pop art, all at once. He primarily sought his subjects in the world of advertising, comics and Hollywood superstars. Marilyn Monroe, alongside contemporary icons like Elvis Presley, Jackie Kennedy, and Princess Diana, was part of Warhol's repertoire of images.

High-quality offset edition on cardboard. Framed in a silver-coloured solid wood frame with a grey inner bevel, glazed. Size approx. 62 x 140 cm (h/w). © 2004 The Andy Warhol Foundation for Visual Arts, Inc.
