

SIME: Sculpture "Little Lion", bronze

€1,480.00

Product no.: IN-789708

Powerful elegance: SIME's "Little Lion" does not shy away from representationalism. This sculpture is unmistakably a lion. But at the same time, the lion is an expression of the artist's very own visual language. Despite all the mimesis, SIME presents his works monolithically, formed from clear structures. Its liveliness does not result from filigree attention to detail but rather from the artistic emphasis on what makes the lion a lion in its silhouette. For example, the suppleness of the body structure or the muscular chest of the animal.
