Product no.: IN-712073.R1

In 1890, Claude Monet bought a picturesque plot of land in Giverny and devoted himself entirely to designing his garden. He created a paradise with several exotic flowers and ponds with shimmering water lilies. Monet built a Japanese wooden bridge over the water lily pond. Here, he found the motifs for his world-famous water lily and garden paintings, which characterised his late artistic work.

"Iris Bed in Monet's Garden": A fragrant sea of blossoms, a lushly arranged colour symphony of flowers. Original: Oil on canvas, Musée d'Orsay, Paris.

High-quality reproduction using the Fine Art Giclée process directly hand-pulled onto canvas and traditionally stretched on a stretcher frame. The visible linen structure underlines the painting-like effect of the object. Framed in a fine solid wood frame. Size 65 x 73 cm (h/w).
