

Paul Wunderlich: Sculpture "Seagull", bronze

€1,400.00

Product no.: IN-701139

In the European tradition, the seagull is a symbol of freedom. But beyond all formal and contextual references, Wunderlich's sculpture is a work of art that we can admire and enjoy.

His seagull is a careful and considered composition of horizontal, vertical and diagonal. The similar shapes of the beak, wings and tail feathers give rhythm to the form and convey a lively appearance to the bird, which is further enhanced by the contrasting patination between shimmering gold and matt green.

Fine bronze sculpture with multiple patinas and partially polished. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Mounted on a bronze plinth. Height 20 cm, width 16.5 cm. Weight 0.9 kg. Edition of 900 copies, numbered and signed.
