August Macke:

Picture "Girl at the Fountain" (1913), black and silver-coloured framed version

€730.00

Product no.: IN-934674

Like no other artist, August Macke was able to illuminate the colours on the canvas. The scenes he painted always portrayed the cheerful and light-hearted aspects of life. The "Girls at the Fountain" belongs to Macke's late work, in which the influence of Cubism was noticeable: the painting appears to be a composition of countless small surfaces and geometric shapes - almost like a church window.
