

Paul Wunderlich: Large sculpture "Daphne", bronze

€19,800.00

Product no.: IN-703618

Daphne, a representative large sculpture by Paul Wunderlich, appears to us in sublime beauty. Her mysterious smile, the gesture of her hand stretched out to us, the archaic hairstyle reinforce the magical impression of the sculpture. Daphne, who evaded Apollo's importunities by transforming herself into a laurel tree, is depicted by Wunderlich at a decisive moment. Having just been exposed to the god of love and escaping only by trickery, Wunderlich shows Daphne's transformation back into triumphant femininity.

Sculpture in fine bronze, patinated and partially polished. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Mounted on a bronze base. Edition of 290 copies, numbered and signed. Catalogue raisonné no. 235. Height without pedestal 125 cm, with pedestal 147 cm. Weight 65 kg.
