Product no.: IN-946630

Florian Illies allows us to experience the past as if it were the present. In "The Magic of Silence", he unfolds for the first time the adventurous stories of Caspar David Friedrich. A wild journey through time to the man who invented longing for the Germans.

For centuries, Friedrich's evening skies have stirred the most passionate feelings: Goethe was so enraged by their melancholy that he wanted to smash them on the edge of a table, while Walt Disney fell so deeply in love with them that he only let his "Bambi" run through Friedrich's landscapes. Through the captivating narrative of Caspar David Friedrich's life, this book brings to life 250 years of German history. And Friedrich, the painter, becomes a flesh-and-blood human being.

256 pages. Size 21.5 x 14.6 x 3.1 cm (h/w/d). Language: German.
