Product no.: IN-711894.R1

One of the artist's recurring motifs are horses - Aeffner is regarded in hippophile circles as the contemporary horse painter par excellence. In this work, he combines the animal with the human epitome of elegance and vitality. The flamenco dancer dominating the foreground corresponds directly with the horse in the background - wild and impetuous.

Fine Art Giclée transferred directly onto 100% cotton artist canvas and mounted on a wooden stretcher frame like an original oil painting. Limited edition of 199 hand-signed copies. In fine, handcrafted real wood museum frame. Size 69 x 86 cm. Exclusively at ars mundi.
